

NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORT

March 13, 2023

The Nominating Committee wishes to express its gratitude to the emcees of the Winter Series for representing the Board in repeated calls upon the membership to volunteer for the Board. Consequently, three LUES members volunteered and were interviewed for Board positions. The Nominating Committee endorsed two of those individuals for Director-at-Large positions, and the third candidate has volunteered to assist the Technology Committee.

The two individuals presented to and approved by the Board to stand for election are:

Maureen Clancy obtained an insurance license and worked for number of years in that industry before obtaining a Property Management Certificate from Humber College. She then worked as a property manager for the Region of Peel. She has been active in Toastmasters and serves as the Board secretary of the Etobicoke Lawn Bowling Club.

Jennifer Denomme began her career as a computer programmer and software developer for Canada Systems Group, worked in management for Rogers Communications, and was the Director of Systems Architecture for Dow Jones. She currently volunteers as part of the Communications Team for the local branch of the Canadian Federation of University Women.

The Nominating Committee presents the following slate of nominees for election to the Board of Directors of Learning Unlimited for Etobicoke Seniors for the 2023-2024 term by the members attending the Annual Meeting:

Rich Bailey

Betty Horton

Maureen Clancy

Judy McCormick

Jennifer Denomme

Roger Tessier

Deb Forsyth-Petrov

Rosemary Tessier

The Past President, John Willson, has agreed to remain as an ex officio member of the Board.

Nominating Committee Chair

Glenn Yaffee

