

ECONOMICS IN OUR TIME: HOW ECONOMICS AFFECTS US
Fall 2014 Lecture Series

Tuesdays, October 21 to December 9, 10 A.M to 12 Noon
Fairfield Seniors' Centre, 80 Lothian Avenue, Etobicoke

416-410-6204

www.learningunlimitedetobicoke.com

October 21 – The madness of crowds: How to keep safe during boom and bust

October 28 – How real are the industrial revolutions of China and India?

November 4 – Why Canada's future prosperity is a good bet

November 11 – The myth of American economic decline

November 18 – Excessive executive pay: The cancer on capitalism

November 25 – Ties that bind: Trade deals and the new global village

December 2 – Geopolitics: Why Angela Merkel matters to you

December 9 – Principles of Personal Investing: The millionaire next door, and how to become one

Coordinator and Presenter: David Olive, Business and Current Affairs Columnist, Toronto Star

Researchers and Chairs: Barbara Stewart and Sybil Wilkinson

Registration Fee: $35.00 per person, per series